Miss Annie Lee Hatch the Bride of Reginald Lyman.

at 11 o'clock, Miss Annie Lee Hatch and Reginald Lyman, the latter from Wellesley, Mass., were united in mar-riage by Rev. Fraser Metzger. The parlor had been beautifully decorated with greenery and pink roses, and in the corner was an arch of green in which the couple stood as the marriage vows were tak-The couple entered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin march played by Miss Irene Chandler of Strafford, and they advanced to the place assigned them, where the officiating clergyman gave the ceremony, to ing the double ring service. The brid was beautifully gowned in white silk with a veil caught with orange blossoms, and was accompanied by Miss Lois Hayward, the maid of honor. The latter was gowned in pink and carried pink roses with green, while the bride's bouquet was of white roses. The best man was Paul Russlow, who has been with Mr Lyman in Wellesley, Mass. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and many of the bride's most intimate young lady friends served. Numerous and beauti ful gifts from the friends all testify to the love of a large circle of friends of the bride here, where she has been very popular. The bride attended school here, was graduated from the high school and since that time has been at home for the most part of the time The groom is from Rutland, was a Norwich university student and is now lo cated in Wellesley, Mass., where they will go on their return. ## New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

HAIR GROWN ON MR. BRITTAIN'S BALD HEAD BY INDIANS' MYSTERIOUS HAIR GROWER

My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The scalp was ahiny. An expert said that as he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth.

Yet now, at an age ever 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair! No trace of baldness. The pictures shown here are from my photographs.

Indians' Secret of Hair Growth

the city.

At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialists treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian "medicine man" who had an elinir that he assererated would grow my hair.

Although I had hut little faith, I gave it a trial.

To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

That I was extensished and heppy is expressing my sate of mind mildly.
Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade.

I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this mysterious elixir, now called Kotalko, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply preved, wany mon and women, also children, have reported satisfactory results from Kotalko.

How You May Grow Your Hair

My honest belief is that hair roots rarely die even when the hair falls out through dandruff, fever, excessive dryness or other disorders. I have been told by experis that often when hair falls out the roots become imbedded within the scalp, covered by hard skin, so that they remain for a time like bulbs or seeds in a bottle which will grow when fertilized. Shampoos (which contain alcohol are enemies to the hair, as ey dry it, making it brittle. Kotalko contains those elements of nature which give new vitality to the scalp and hair.

PROVE FOR YOURSELF Get a box of the genuine Kotalko at a reliable druggist's $500.00 GUARANTEE with each box. A small testing box of Kotalko (with testimonials, etc.) may be obtained by sending ten cents, silver or stampe, to my address below.
